

Statement by the author of the article regarding the use of AI

(in the case of a multi-authored article, the declaration is completed by the submitting author who bears full responsibility for its content)

I certify that the publication entitled

.....
The work submitted for publication in the Journal of Education, Technology, and Computer Science was created in compliance with the ethical principles of the authors and publishers. I hereby declare that the work submitted is original, previously unpublished, and my own.

I declare that it was prepared*:

- without the use of AI;
- using AI tools, and the percentage of content generated using this tool in the entire work does not exceed 20%.

Date

.....

(author's signature)

*delete as appropriate